

Seaforth Sailing Club

5 Day Learn to Sail Vacation & Certification Program

Enjoy 5 days in San Diego while you learn to sail
Earn your American Sailing Association 101, and 103 certifications!

- ❖ This program is for people who would like to learn how to sail in sunny San Diego. You will get to stay on your own Catalina 320 yacht while taking your classes. A great program for beginners.

Your Week:

- Monday: Get yourself comfortable on your Catalina 320 around 9:00 am (you have the option to come onboard Sunday evening). At 10:00 you will start your first class, ASA 101 Basic Keel Boat Sailing on a Capri 22 until 4:00 pm.
- Tuesday: Day two of the 101 class, finish around 4:00, relax and enjoy San Diego night life.
- Wednesday: Free day to practice your new sailing skills on a Capri 22.
- Thursday: Start the ASA 103, Coastal Cruising class on your 320.
- Friday: Finish the ASA 103 class

Your Yacht:

The Catalina 320 is equipped with towels, linens, pots, pans, dishware, coffee machine, stereo-CD player, and safety equipment. It has two sleeping areas, a fully equipped galley, dining area and enclosed head (bathroom).

Your Homeport

While on your sailing vacation your homeport will be our Downtown location where you will be considered a guest of the Marriott Hotel and able to use the various amenities including the pool, Jacuzzi, weight room, and restaurant. For more information of the Marriott hotel in downtown San Diego visit: www.marriott.com/property/propertyPage/SANDT

Our Downtown location is walking distance to many San Diego attractions including, Petco Park, Seaport village, the Downtown Gaslamp District and more.

The Cost

The Cost for up to two people is $2095 (add $450 for additional students, limit of 4 per boat), price includes live-aboard boat, use of a Capri 22 for 3 days, and all testing supplies. We do not charge port, docking fees or sales tax. The only thing not included in the price is the book, Sailing Fundamentals by Garry Jobson, available at any of our locations, or at www.amazon.com. Take the ASA 103 & ASA 104 instead for $2150.

Overnight at one of our other locations

For more information on the 5 day vacation package please contact our Sailing Director at:
CSmoot@Seaforthboatrental.com or by calling (619) 223-1681